See how Listonic has benefited households around the world. I am a very busy mother and full-time employee who also suffers from ADHD. This app was a lifesaver for me! The ability to list things no matter where I am or what I do so I don't get to the grocery store and try to remember what I needed to get has made my life easier and more efficient! Terri B. I have an Android phone and my wife has an iPhone. This app syncs perfectly with both platforms. I have been doing electronic shopping checklist for years, this was the easiest to set up and share with my wife. The others I used all stopped sharing at one point and became very difficult to treat. Andy H. Family of 4 with this on our phones. Quickly updated when something is added. We keep lists for different stores. Looked at many other apps like this in recent years. That's the best way to do it. Steward W. I love this free app. It allows you to make food lists, ideal for absentees like me. One feature I just found is that you can set prices for each item. Keep a running sum, all things are checked and unchecked! Marsha W. No need to pay extra to unlock features. I looked far and wide, and tested everything I came across, trying to find a food shopping list app that met my needs - AND actually worked... LISTONIC is this app! It has everything you need in a single app! You can list multiple stores. In each store you enter the items and there are many categories. For each item you can use the quantity calculated as calculated (i.e., oz, lb, gal, etc.), price and any specific references to product. The list can be shared as by emails of your selection! The ONLY I have, from this app, the inability to change or delete items on the cumulative shopping list! All in all, this is probably a small problem, and the app is definitely worth 5 +!! This looked like a good option to replace the scaly, annoying Reminders app for shared lists. I downloaded it to my wife's phone, transferred my lists, signed up for Premium and was pretty hopeful about it. First, there were still ads on my app. I sent an email to support – and told them that they had signed up and had met the premium subscription option that I was already subscribed to – and they came back to me two days later to tell me I was signed in. So I sent them a few screenshots and then 2 days later they came back to me to tell me it was a server malfunction. Ok... it happens. Less than a week later, I compiled my food list via the website interface. I suspect it has something to do with the fact that I had opened two browser windows where the lists were displayed – my food list just disappears. I tried to sign up and re-enter... still nothing. Still available in the app, so I signed in to the app and got out in the hope that it would upload it again... it wasn't. I'm a software developer, so I have an idea of how the back-end of systems like this works... This is either someone who doesn't care, or has no idea what they're doing. Someone who actually charges people for a system with beta-level reliability is just sad. Love this app! Our family often uses it. We love the fact that when one of us adds or checks out an item, we will all be notified. Basically a great group application! I don't know what id do without them. Believe me, I've tried every app and not even one comes close!! Thank you for creating the best and easiest to use list/app on the market to do! Setup is also a breeze! I recommend this app to families with children who can spell and ascend. If you need an app to help you organize shopping lists or any kind of list for all the shops and places where you shop and run errands, this is the app for you and your family. Also ideal for organizing items you need to pack for a trip. A list of tasks to do for the children. I could go on and on, but I think it's clear that I love this app!! I would try it first and skip everyone else who can't do everything you need to do without frustration. I hope that this assessment will be based on the was helpful in other ways!!
